

"A farmer enjoying his meadow"

By Carolyne Charrington

Winner, 2015 Meadows photography competition

When people come to Highgrove and see the flower meadow there they often say that it reminds them of their childhood. As time goes on there will be fewer people for whom that is true.'

- HRH The Prince of Wales

How far have we come?

2,600 landowners advised or trained

100 events on National Meadows Day 2016

2,500ha grassland directly restored or maintained

14,000 people taken parts in events

6,000 school children have been on a meadow workshop

28,000 volunteer hours given to the project

261 photo competition entries

On-line information hub

Big challenges still to tackle.....

Today is about the (her) future

